Challenge is to order dated 23/11/2018 passed below Exh. 23 by the Additional Judge, Small Causes Court, Nagpur, in R.C.S No. 299/2017, whereby the application filed by the respondents – plaintiffs to amend the plaint was allowed.

2] Heard Shri K.B. Ambilwade, learned Counsel for the petitioners. None for the respondents.

3] The order impugned indicate that the respondents – plaintiffs sought amendment to bring on record developments that occurred subsequent to filing of suit. According to the respondents, the petitioners – defendants did not accept notice and cheque towards rent and, thus, they willfully avoided to accept the rent.

4] The respondents – plaintiffs further sought to add that the electric meter installed in the tenanted premises is in the name of Smt. Firoza Begum Abdul Raut (original defendant no.1). However, the respondents – plaintiffs and Shri Mohammad Altaf were consuming electricity and were sharing the same equally.

5] Further amendment was sought by the respondents – plaintiffs as regards obstruction by defendant no.3 for parking two wheeler.

6] These events having occurred subsequent to filing of suit, the amendment was sought, which the trial Court has allowed.

7] I do not find any perversity in the impugned order. The Writ Petition is accordingly dismissed.
