2. By the present application, the applicant/appellant is seeking to condone the delay of 67 days caused in filing the appeal against the judgment and award dated 10.10.2023.

3. The contention is that there is order by the Tribunal to the non-applicant No.1 to pay the deficit court-fees and the office was directed to draw the award after depositing the deficit court-fees. Accordingly, award was prepared after depositing the court-fees by the non-applicant No.1. Further contention is that the applicant was under impression that certified copy of the award/decreed is required to file alongwith appeal. There is no counter reply.
