Mr. A.Y. Sharma, Advocate for Petitioner
Mrs. Nandita Tripathi, APP for Respondent Nos.1 and 2

CORAM: AVINASH G. GHAROTE AND SMT. M.S. JAWALKAR, JJ.

DATED : 3rd APRIL, 2024

Heard Mr. Sharma, learned counsel for the petitioner. The petition seeks to challenge the order dated 28/3/2024, by the respondent No.1, rejecting the application of the petitioner, for extension of parole, which was earlier granted for a period of 45 days by the order dated 08/02/2024, by further period of 15 days. It is contended, that since the wife of the petitioner is suffering from heart ailment and there is no other male member in the family to look after her, 15 days extension was required to be granted. Though the extension is opposed by learned APP on the ground that it can only be granted in exceptional circumstances, however, considering the fact that the ailment of the wife has already been considered as an exceptional circumstance for grant of parole, which still continues, extension for further period of 15 days from 30/03/2024, would not be unjustified. In that view of the matter, we allow the petition by extending the parole of petitioner for a further period of 15 days from 30/03/2024 subject to the condition that the petitioner shall not indulge into any illegal activities during this parole.
