On instructions, a prayer is made for withdrawal of the writ petitions.
The same are disposed of as withdrawn.

2. The interim order is in operation for almost twenty months. As such, we continue the said interim relief and the said arrangement shall be in operation for another ten weeks from today.

3. Needless to clarify that since we have not made any observations on merits as we are of the view that the petitions contain disputed questions of law, the petitioner is granted liberty to approach the Civil Court who shall adjudicate the claim put forth by the petitioner without being influenced by the withdrawal of the writ petitions. It is also clarified that the corresponding responsibility of the petitioner to renew the bank guarantee shall continue to operate further.
