CORAM : ANIL L. PANSARE, J.
FEBRUARY 9, 2024.

After having heard for some time, it appears that there are certain applications which ought not to have been filed. The Official Liquidator ought to have taken steps including releasing amount in terms of the admitted position.

2] In the circumstances, one opportunity is given to the Official Liquidator to examine all pending applications and to deal with the prayers made therein in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act, 1956. The Official Liquidator shall file a detailed report as regards the remedial steps taken by him in pending applications and may seek appropriate orders from the Court, in case he is unable to proceed with the issue involved without the order of the Court. The Official Liquidator and the learned Counsel for the Official Liquidator shall examine whether the OLRs filed were indeed required to be filed before the Court or remedial steps could have been taken in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

3] Stand over to 1/3/2024.
