Civil Application (CAO) No.866/2024

- 1, By this application Shri S. Wahane, learned counsel for the petitioner seeks discharge of his appearance in the matter.
2. The petitioner who appears in person has no objection.
3. That being so, we hereby discharge appearance of Advocate Shri S. Wahane. Civil Application is allowed and disposed of.

Civil Application (CAO) No.1196/2019

5. We have heard the petitioner/applicant in person.
6. As the grievance in regard to prayer clause (i) is redressed as the petitioner has received copy of the Enquiry Report, the prayer is not pressed.
7. As far as prayer clause (ii) about not to release the cost of repairs of road is concerned, we are informed by the learned Assistant Government Pleader that the amount is already released. In that view of the matter, prayer clause (ii) has rendered infructuous.
8. That being so, Civil Application stands disposed of.

Civil Application (CAO) No. 262/2021

9. Since, Civil Application No.1196/2019 is disposed of, the prayer in the present application no more survives. The same stands disposed of accordingly.
