2. The present application is infact a note for speaking to minutes of the judgment passed by this Court in Criminal Writ Petition No.02/2024 decided on 10.07.2024.

3. We have heard the petitioner in person.

4. We may not reproduce the contents of the application/note, the party-in-person has taken us through the judgment and what he wants to say as to where this Court erred or correction is needed, however, taking into consideration, the entire note it can be stated that it is not merely speaking to minutes but a review that too pointing out the alleged defects, misquoting or mistaken observations by this Court which cannot be gone into. In speaking to minutes only clerical errors can be corrected. This Court cannot be asked to sit as an appellate Court over its own judgment, therefore, the application stands rejected.
