CORAM : URMILA JOSHI-PHALKE, J.
DATED : 19/03/2024

1. By preferring this application, the appellant is seeking leave to file an appeal, as the trial Court has acquitted the respondent, on the ground that the appellant has not produced on record the evidence as to the GST return, as well as the statutory notice is not in view of the law, as well as only the signature portion is in the handwriting of the respondent and rest of the portion is filled by the complainant.

2. Learned Counsel Mr. Deshpande pointed out from the judgment of the learned trial Court that he has many arguable points in the present appeal and therefore, leave is to be granted. He has also placed on record the various documents to show the nature of the transaction between the appellant and respondent.

3. Considering the fact that the appellant has many arguable points in the present appeal, the leave requires to be granted. In view of that, leave is granted.
