CORAM : VINAY JOSHI AND
VRUSHALI V. JOSHI, JJ.

DATE : SEPTEMBER 09, 2024.

ORAL JUDGMENT (PER VINAY JOSHI, J.) :

Heard.

Admit. By consent of the learned Counsel present for the parties, the matters are taken up for final disposal.

2. By these applications the husband and relatives of husband are seeking to quash the first information report bearing Crime

Rgd.

No.353/2019 registered with Hudkeshwar Police Station, Nagpur for the offence punishable under Section 498-A read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, on account of settlement.

3. Out of a matrimonial dispute, the informant – lady lodged the report on the basis of which the aforesaid crime came to be registered for the offence relating to matrimonial cruelty. Similarly, several other proceedings were filed against each other by respective parties. The maintenance proceeding was going on, which was carried up to the Supreme Court. Looking to the variety of matters in between spouses, the Supreme Court has referred the matter for mediation, which turned to be successful. The parties have arrived at a compromise, and thus severed the matrimonial ties. The husband had agreed to pay lump sum amount of Rs.1.10 Crores towards full and final settlement. Accordingly terms of settlement were filed before the Supreme Court. Having regard to the settlement in exercise of the powers under Article 142 of the Constitution of India, the Supreme Court annulled the marriage and disposed of the proceeding.

Rgd.

4. In view of the settlement, the husband has already paid the entire agreed sum to the informant lady. The informant has also filed an affidavit-in-reply dated 30.05.2024, stating about the settlement and no objection to quash the proceeding. However, the informant has remained absent in the present proceeding. It reveals that earlier the informant appeared through her Advocate, but, now she has chosen not to appear, may be because of the settlement of the matter.

5. We have gone through the terms of settlement filed before the Supreme Court and the orders passed therein. Moreover, the informant has filed an affidavit which is on record. In the circumstances, there is no purpose in keeping the dispute alive in the Court of Magistrate, as no one is interested, rather the matter is settled. In view of that, we deem it appropriate to invoke our inherent powers to secure the ends of justice. Hence, the following order.

ORDER

- (i) Criminal Applications are allowed and disposed of.

Rgd.

- (ii) The first information report bearing Crime No.353/2019 registered with Hudkeshwar Police Station, Nagpur for the offence punishable under Section 498-A read with Section 34 of the Indian Penal Code, is hereby quashed and set aside.
