Mr. R. R. Prajapati, Advocate for Applicant/Appellant.

CORAM : ANIL L. PANSARE, J.
DATE : FEBRUARY 08, 2024.

CIVIL APPLICATION (CAO) NO. 177 OF 2024

. By the present Application, the Applicant/Appellant is seeking to condone the delay of 72 days in filing Application for restoration of Family Court Appeal.

2. For the reasons set out in the Application, Civil Application is allowed as prayed for.

3. Misc. Civil Application be registered.

MISC. CIVIL APPLICATION (ST) NO. 21663 OF 2023

. Experience show that when the Application is filed for restoration of Appeal, invariably the Counsel do not annex with the Application the order of the Registrar.

2. It is extremely important to go through the order of the Registrar to understand the conduct of the parties. In a given case, despite repeated opportunities, office objections are not removed. In such eventuality, while considering restoration application, this conduct attains significance and appropriate order could be passed accordingly.

3. The Registry is, accordingly, directed to not accept the Application seeking restoration of Appeal without the copy of order refusing registration or dismissing the Appeal is annexed with the Application.

4. Copy of order be sent to the Registrar (Judicial) of this Court for issuing appropriate directions to the Registry.

5. List the Application once copy of order of refusal to register the Appeal is filed by the Applicant.
