1. Heard the applicant appearing in-person. Perused the record and proceedings.
2. By this application, the applicant is seeking permission for audio-video recording of the Court proceedings and providing a copy of the same to her.
3. I have perused the grounds in support of the application. No ground has been stated in the application to justify such a prayer. Similarly, the Court proceedings cannot be permitted to be recorded even at the request of the litigant. The prayer, therefore, appears to be without substance.
