COMMON ORDER

These writ petitions are filed challenging the orders issued by the respondents in and by which the appointments were refused to be approved.

2. When the matters are taken up for hearing, the learned counsels on either side would produce two orders by which both the writ petitioners namely Manikandan and Pradeep's appointments were approved by the respondents.

3. As such, nothing survives for further adjudication in these writ petitions. Accordingly, these writ petitions are disposed of. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
