5. Considering the above facts and circumstances, and also considering the fact that the investigation almost completed and on seeing the previous antecedents of petitioner, having 51 previous cases including 5 murder cases pending against him and out of which, more than eight cases ended in acquittal and he is a notorious person and also considering the fact that even assuming that bail was granted in one case, the remaining other cases pending against him as well as on seeing the conduct of petitioner, at this stage, if he is released on bail, there is possibility of tampering the witnesses and hampering investigation and also the fact that there is no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant bail to the petitioner.
