ORDER

(Delivered by the Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.M.SUBRAMANIAM)

The learned counsel for the review petitioner, Mrs.Hemalatha, would submit that the Division Bench, in paragraph 3 of the judgment dated 03.12.2018, recorded the submissions made between the parties. It is stated that one Paramasivam, Cashier of the Cooperative Society, has accepted the guilt and undertook to pay the same and therefore, the entire liability cannot be mulcted on the writ petitioner and granted liberty to the Society to proceed against Paramasivam initially for recovery of the amount and on failure to do so, granted liberty to proceed against the writ petitioner and other employees.

2. Such submissions made between the parties before this Court in the writ appeal cannot be re-adjudicated, nor the grounds raised in the present petition deserve merit consideration. It is an observation made by this Court, based on the rival submissions made between the parties.

3. Therefore, as certain observations made in paragraph 3 of the judgment is sought to be reviewed, the present review petition cannot be entertained. The Division Bench has independently considered the issues and dismissed the writ appeal.

4. The grounds for appeal cannot be considered to entertain the review application. Therefore, the petitioner has not established any error apparent on record, warranting exercise of review jurisdiction.
