Crl.O.P.No.767 of 2024

C.V.KARTHIKEYAN, J.

The Petitioner/A1 in Crime No.362 of 2023 registered by the Respondent Police for the offence under Section 379 IPC, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. It is the case of the prosecution that the Accused persons had stolen two goats. Hence, this case.

3. It is stated by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) that the Accused A2 had been arrested. He also stated that there has been no recovery of the goats.

4. The learned counsel for the Petitioner stated that the Petitioner is an innocent person and is no way connected with the alleged offence. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the Petitioner herein.

5. But however, taking all the factors into consideration, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner with certain conditions.

CrI.O.P.No.767 of 2024

Accordingly, the Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Mannargudi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the Respondent Police daily at 10.30 a.m., for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required for the interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
