2. It is stated that the two accused, had come on a scooty bike and had taken away the defacto complainant's mobile phone. It is further stated that A1 had been arrested and still in custody. There is one previous case against the petitioner. The said mobile phone had not been recovered.

3. The matter has been listed twice earlier when it was observed it would be that only to the advantage of the petitioner that the mobile phone is produced. There is no still recovery of the stolen property.
