The petitioner who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent Police for the offences under Sections 341, 302, 302 r/w 114 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.83 of 2007, seeks anticipatory bail.

2.The occurrence had taken place on 31.05.2006. The petitioner had been remanded to judicial custody and later, had been granted bail under Section 167(2) Cr.P.C. The respondent then filed the final report and the same was taken cognizance as PRC.No.7 of 2006. The petitioner did not appear before the jurisdictional Magistrate Court and Non Bailable Warrant was issued to him and thereafter, a separate P.R.C.No15 of 2007 was assigned. P.R.C.No.7 of 2006 was committed to the Court of Sessions and after trial, the accused was convicted. But subsequently, in Criminal Appeal, they were acquitted. Now the petitioner has come back to this Country and has filed this particular petition seeking anticipatory bail, since Non Bailable Warrant is pending against him in P.R.C.No.15 of 2007.

3.The petitioner will necessarily have to surrender before the concerned Judicial Magistrate Court and the learned counsel states that the application for surrender and to accept surrender and for bail should be considered on the same day. The learned counsel for the petitioner offers to surrender his passport to show bonafide that he will not once again leave the course of the County

4.If records are available and if the petitioner surrenders at 10.30 a.m., and if the instructions are forwarded to the learned Judicial Magistrate by prosecution, then the learned Judicial Magistrate may endeavour to dispose of it on the same day, but if there is any impediment, he may dispose it of as expeditiously as possible.

5.With the above directions, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
