3. Since no adverse order is passed against the private respondent, notice to the private respondent/R5 is dispensed with.

4. It is the contention of the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner made representation before the respondents 1 and 2 on 01.09.2022. Based on the petitioner's representation, though the respondents have issued summons and also conducted enquiry, they have not passed final order so far.

5. It is seen from the records, based on the representation given by the petitioner, the respondents have issued summon to the petitioner. It is the contention of the petitioner that though enquiry was conducted by the respondents, no final order has been passed.

6. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side and taking into consideration the limited prayer sought for by the petitioner, without expressing any opinion with regard to the merits of the case, this Court directs the respondents 2 and 3 to
