Arb.O.P.No.8 of 2024

RMT. TEEKAA RAMAN., J.

Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner.

2. The respondent's name is printed, and no one appeared.

3. The petitioner alleges a breach of the terms of the agreement between the parties. According to the respondent, as an ex-employee, they will be liable to reimburse the petitioner's Company a sum of Rs.25 lakhs as liquidated damages for committing a breach.

4. Notice has been issued for the appointment of a sole arbitrator, but there has been no response.

5. After perusing the petition, I find that it is a fit case for appointment of an arbitrator.

6. Hence, Mrs.Adhilakshmi Logamurthy, the learned Advocate is appointed as an Arbitrator and after hearing both the parties, the Arbitrator shall co-operate by terms of the Arbitration Conciliation Act in accordance with rules.
