ORDER

Read this order in continuation of and in conjunction with order dated 29.01.2024 that reads as follows:-

“Mr.L.Jai Venkatesh, learned Standing Counsel accepts notice for R1 and R2 and Mr.Sharath Chandran, learned counsel accepts notice for R3. They seek some time to obtain instructions and file counters.

2. The transfer application filed by R3 for change of name has been directed to be considered and disposed within a period of eight weeks by this Court vide order dated 28.12.2023 in W.P.No.36393 of 2023.

3. The present petitioner is aggrieved by the fact that his security deposit is still with the electricity department. The property in relation to which electricity connection relates has been purchased by R3 in auction.

4. All learned counsel before me would agree on the position that R3 being the successful auction purchaser is entitled to the change of name of connection as ordered on 28.12.2023 and must make a deposit separately in that regard. Separately, the present petitioner is also entitled to refund of his security deposit.

5. Hence, it is appropriate for the parties to resolve the matter amicably in accordance with the observations as aforesaid.

6. List on 26.02.2024 at the end of admission list in the hope that the matter would have been

4.Recording this, this writ petition is closed. Needless to say, liberty is always available to the petitioner to challenge order dated 21.02.2024 in a manner known to law. No costs. Connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
