The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323, 352 and 506(ii) of Indian Penal Code in Crime No. 78 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is stated that the defacto complainant and the petitioners are residing in the same area and they have the habit of consuming liquor sitting in front of the house, due to which there was a wordy quarrel, which escalated into violence and assault.

3. The learned Government Advocate (crl side) submitted that there are 8 previous cases against the first petitioner.

4. Taking into consideration of all the facts, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

5. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate-II, Tindivanam, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of this Court concerned, failing which, the petition for
