2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondents.

3. The first petitioner had given a complaint before the respondents on 29.8.2023 seeking a non-traceable certificate on the ground that the original parent documents were lost and that unless the non-traceable certificate is obtained from the police, the petitioners will not be able to proceed further to deal with the property.

4. The learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that though the on-line complaint was given by the first petitioner, she is not co-operating for the enquiry and that she is not submitting the necessary documents. In view of the same, the respondent police is not able to act upon the complaint given by the first petitioner.
