5. It is further stated that the prime allegation in the complaint is that the wife has sold the property for a sum of Rs.1,60,25,000/- and handed over the entire money to her husband and availed a loan in the name of the de-facto complainant. A1/de-facto complainant's husband bought a land and registered it in his name Instead of the husband of the de-facto complainant namely A1 obtained and registered the loan in his name and thereafter transferred by way of settlement deed.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel on either side, there are no change of circumstances, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

7. Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition stands dismissed.
