Taluk, Thiruvallur District and also to verify and fix the boundaries and furnish a copy of the survey report to the petitioner within a time frame.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the official respondents.

3. Since there is no adverse order passed against the fifth respondent in this petition, notice to the private respondent/fifth respondent is dispensed with.

4. It is clearly stated in the impugned proceedings passed by the second respondent that the third party has given objection to survey the petitioner's land, and also stated that the second respondent will consider the petitioner's representation and pass orders. The impugned proceedings passed by the second respondent is neither a final order nor an adverse order. Without any grievance, the petitioner has filed the present writ petition. However, the petitioner submitted that pending writ petition, he has received notice/summon from the respondents.
