2. The case is still at the stage of investigation. By passage of time, the parties have decided to bury their hatchet and compromise the dispute amicably among themselves.

3. A Joint Compromise Memo dated 24.01.2024 signed by both parties and their respective counsel and affidavits of respondents 2 and 3 have been filed before this Court. The petitioner and respondents 2 and 3 were also present in person before this Court and they were identified by Mr.P.Sankar, Special Sub-Inspector of Police, Nemili Police Station, Ranipet District [94981 48929]. In the Joint Memo of Compromise and in the affidavits, it has been stated that the petitioner and second respondent have entered into a compromise and amicably settled their issues in Crime No.134 of 2013 on the file of first respondent police. This Court also enquired both the parties and was satisfied that the parties have come to an amicable settlement between themselves.

4. Under such circumstances, no useful purpose will be served in keeping the case pending, even though, the offences involved are not compoundable in nature. In the light of the guidelines given by the
