ORDER

This Writ Petition is filed challenging the order passed by the first respondent Labour Court in C.P.No.461 of 1994, dated 09.02.2007.

2. When the matter came up for hearing, Mr.Anand Gopalan, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner management would submit that it is the case of the petitioner management that whatever has been computed does not flow from any pre-existing right or an award and as such, the amount ought not to have been computed at all by the Labour Court. But, however, if the respondent workman is willing to accept the sum of R.1,29,529/- which is computed in the matter without making any further claim for any subsequent period or any other claim as against the management, the management without prejudice to its rights and contention is willing to pay the said sum of Rs.1,29,529/- in order to buy peace.

3. When the matter came up for hearing today the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the respondent workman would submit that as far as the workman involved in the present case is concerned, he is agreeable for such a course to accept the sum of Rs.1,29,529/- and undertake not to make
