2. The case is still at the stage of investigation. By passage of time, the parties have decided to bury their hatchet and compromise the dispute amicably among themselves.

3. A Joint Compromise Memo dated 31.01.2024 signed by both parties and affidavits of petitioner and second respondent have been filed before this Court. The petitioner and second respondent were also present in person before this Court and they were identified by Ms.D.Durai, Special Sub-Inspector of Police, All Women Police Station, Mamallapuram [94981 10228]. In the Joint Memo of Compromise and in the affidavits, it has been stated that the petitioner and the second respondent have entered into a compromise and amicably settled their issues in Crime No.7 of 2020 pending on the file of first respondent. This Court also enquired both the parties and was satisfied that the parties have come to an amicable settlement between themselves.

4. Under such circumstances, no useful purpose will be served in keeping the case pending, even though, the offences involved are not compoundable in nature. In the light of the guidelines given by the
