petitioner, being the son of the deceased, sought for employment on compassionate ground.

4. The learned Standing Counsel appearing for the respondents would submit that the petitioner failed to submit any application in a proper form. The petitioner also failed to submit No Objection Certificate from other family members. That apart, the petitioner's brother viz., son who born through first wife, is employed and as such, their family is not in indigency condition and they are not entitled for compassionate appointment.

5. However, the petitioner is directed to submit a fresh application with all requirements seeking compassionate appointment and the same may be considered by the second respondent on merits and in accordance with law.

6. With the above directions, this writ petition is disposed of.
There shall be no order as to costs.
