2. The petitioner/wife pleads that she has no income and has two children to take care of. She states that with the lack of income, she would find it very difficult to travel on a regular basis from Villupuram to Puducherry, though the distance is very inconsiderable.

3. Notice was issued in the transfer CMP on 17.04.2024 and the respondent/husband was served.

4. Learned counsel appearing for the respondent/husband states that he has no objection for the transfer of the proceedings from the Family Court, Puducherry to the Family Court, Villupuram.

5. Taking into consideration the no objection tendered by the respondent/husband as well as the difficulties expressed by the wife, this transfer civil miscellaneous petition is allowed. MOP.No.14 of 2023 is withdrawn from the file of the Family Court, Puducherry and is transferred to the file of the Family Court, Villupuram. It is made clear that the Family Court
