2. Though the petitioner was successful in the written examination, the claim of the petitioner for appointment was rejected during the course of certificate verification on the ground that the petitioner failed to produce the certificate evidencing that she possessed the qualification of D.T.Ed. Aggrieved by the same, the petitioner approached this Court by filing the present writ petition.

3. From the affidavit filed in support of the writ petition, it is noticed that the petitioner has appeared for the final examination of D.T.Ed only in the month of June 2012 and the results of the same were published in the month of December 2012. Whereas the notification in question was issued on 07.03.2012 and the last date for submission of application under the said notification was 04.04.2012. Neither on the date of notification nor on the last date for submission of application for the appointment to the post of Teacher for Classes I to V and VI to VIII, the petitioner had not possessed the qualification of D.T.Ed nor she has appeared for final examination of the said course.
