ORDER

(Delivered by the Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.M.SUBRAMANIAM)

The appellants in the writ appeal have filed the present review petition.

2. The review petitioners filed writ petition, seeking writ of mandamus to direct the respondents to estimate the vacancies accrued every year in the category of Assistant Engineers and Junior Engineers in Highways Department up to the year of estimation of vacancies ending 2006 and apportion the same between Assistant Engineers and Junior Engineers in strict conformity with the Special Rules to Tamil Nadu Highways Engineering Subordinate Service and

Tamil Nadu Highways Engineering Service (i) without reserving any vacancy for appointment on compassionate grounds; (ii) following 75%:25% ratio rule amongst Assistant Engineers and Junior Engineers; and (iii) adjusting the already excessively appointed Diploma Holders/Junior Engineers in the vacancies reserved for Assistant Engineers etc., notify the vacancies apportioned for Assistant Engineers and to complete the process of selection and appointment of Assistant Engineers within three months.

3. The writ petition was dismissed and the writ appeal filed before the Division Bench was considered and the order of the Writ Court was confirmed.

4. The grounds, on merits, raised in the review petition need not be adjudicated in the present review petition. The grounds raised may be arguable in the appeal, but not in the review petition. The scope of review cannot be expanded. Therefore, we are not inclined to consider those grounds raised, which are all relating to the merits involved.
