T.V.THAMILSELVI,J.

The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 294(b), 427, 307, 120B of IPC, in Crime No.133 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 02.02.2024 around 6.50 a.m, when the defacto complainant went for walking, at that time three unknown persons intercepted the defacto complainant and abused filthy language and also attacked the defacto complainant with iron rod all over the body and snatched the cell phone and broke it. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is no way connected with the above alleged offence. He further submits that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there are totally seven accused in this case and the petitioner herein has been arrayed as A4. He further submits that the co-accused was arrested and released on bail. He further submits that due to wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with iron rod and caused injury. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. At this juncture, the learned counsel for the petitioner, on instructions, submitted that without prejudice to the rights, the petitioner is prepared to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) to the credit of crime number and also submitted that the petitioner has no objection in the amount being released in favour of the de-facto complainant.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case, the submissions made by the learned counsel that the petitioner without prejudice to his rights is volunteered to deposit a sum of Rs.10,000/- to the
