Station.

2. Learned counsel for petitioner submitted that the petitioner is also agreeable to conduct the meeting in the said venue.

3. Before passing further orders, this Court wants to ascertain as to whether this association is registered, who are the office bearers of this association and who are the members of this association. These particulars are necessary in order to enable the police to understand as to who is conducting this meeting.

4. Learned counsel for petitioner submitted that an affidavit will be filed in this regard before this Court.

Post this case under the same caption on 29.02.2024."

4. Pursuant to above order, the learned counsel for petitioner filed affidavit and additional typed set of papers and this Court directed learned Additional Public Prosecutor to verify the antecedents of the petitioner and other office bearers.

5. When the matter was taken up for hearing today, learned Additional Public Prosecutor submitted that there are no bad antecedents both for the petitioner and other office bearers.

6. In the light of the above clarification, there shall be a direction
