The matter was posted today under the caption 'for being mentioned' based on the mentioning made by the learned counsel for the petitioner to the effect that inspite of the orders passed by this Court, no Police protection is forth coming and that a Women's College is functioning under constant threat of law and order problem.

2.This Court enquired the learned Government Advocate appearing on behalf of the respondent Police. Mr.P.Raja, SSI, Karimangalam Police Station, Dharmapuri District was present at the time of hearing and on the instructions given by the said Police officer, the learned Government Advocate submitted that the complaint / representation made by the petitioner has been taken into consideration and that the 2nd respondent will provide Police protection to the College to ensure that the College is being run in a smooth manner without giving rise to any law and order problem.

3.The above submission of the learned Government Advocate is recorded.
