This writ petition has been filed challenging the order passed by the respondent thereby rejected the request made by the petitioner to include his father's alias name.

2. The petitioner's father name was called as Muniappan and also known as Mariappan in the known circle of persons. While he purchase punja land at Pavithram Village, situated at Karur Taluk, during the year 1987 and also in some of the records his name was indicated as Muniappan. The Aadhar Card issued to the petitioner's brother carries his father's name as Muniappan. In order to rectify the same, the petitioner submitted representation before the respondent to add alias name as Muniappan as his father's name. The respondent found that the petitioner failed to prove his father's name as Mariappan @ Muniappan. That apart, the petitioner's father died twenty years back and thereafter the petitioner submitted representation to change the records as his father's name as Mariappan @ Muniappan. Therefore, the respondent rightly rejected the representation made by the petitioner dated 20.11.2019.
