The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Section 379 of IPC r/w 21(1) of Mines and Minerals (Development and Regulation) Act 1957, in Crime No.1144 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that on 15.09.2020, while the respondent police were on patrol duty, at that time, the lorry bearing Registration No.TN 46 E 8679 was stopped by the respondent police and the driver fled away from the scene of occurrence. Upon searching, the respondent police found that the accused had transported 3 units of Savudu sand without any valid license. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and he is no way connected with the above alleged offence. He also submitted that the petitioner is ready to abide by any stringent conditions that may be imposed by this Court. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that the accused had illegally transported 3 units of savudu sand without any valid permission. He further submits that the petitioner has no previous case pending against him. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thiruthuraipoondi, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two
