ORDER

This miscellaneous petition has been filed seeking to receive the additional documents set out in the schedule to the petition as additional evidence in the Second Appeal.

2. These documents have all been obtained after the presentation of the second appeal and therefore necessarily all these are post suit documents. The documents relate to the suit A-Schedule property. The entire case is regarding B-Schedule property and, therefore, I do not find any necessity to receive the documents. Hence, the miscellaneous petition is liable to be dismissed.

This civil miscellaneous petition stands dismissed accordingly.
