The petitioners, who apprehend arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 503, 506(i) of IPC read with Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No. 54 of 2024, seek anticipatory bail.

2. It is stated that the accused and the defacto complainant are all neighbours and the defacto complainant was in the habit of feeding street dogs which led to a quarrel which escalated into violence.

3. Taking all the factors into consideration, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioners with certain conditions.

4. Accordingly, the petitioners are ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on their appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tambaram, on condition that the petitioners shall execute a separate bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten thousand only) each with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of this Court concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further condition that:
