management and therefore, she requires her son's presence during her medical treatment. If the petitioner's son is granted leave with escort, serious prejudice would be caused owing to the presence of the escort at the hospital.

4. It is seen that no reason has been assigned by the Probation Officer in his report dated 20.03.2024, as to why escort is necessary for grant of leave. We have also taken into consideration that the convict prisoner is in prison for the past 2 years without any bad antecedents. This apart, it is also stated by the learned counsel for the petitioner that there is neither any threat to the life and liberty of the petitioner's husband nor any such threat anticipated from his side.

5. In view of the favourable report of the Probation Officer and in the absence of any reasons for grant of any escort, we are inclined to modify the recommendation of the Probation Officer dated 20.03.2024 insofar as the requirement of escort is concerned.
