The Tribunal has awarded a sum of Rs.70,200/- with interest at 7.5% per annum from the date of numbering of the petition till the date of realization and costs as compensation. Aggrieved by the award of the Tribunal, the appellant had preferred the present appeal.

2. After due deliberation and consultation, both the parties have agreed to enhance the award to a sum of Rs.2,20,000/- (Rupees Two Lakhs and Twenty Thousand only) in full quit (without interest) as compensation.

3. According to learned counsel for the appellant, the 2nd respondent-Insurance Company has already deposited the amount awarded by the Tribunal at Rs.70,200/- and the appellant has withdrawn the same.

4. Hence, the second respondent / Insurance Company is directed to deposit the above said accepted award amount of Rs.2,20,000/- (Rupees Two Lakhs and Twenty Thousand only) as over and above the award amount awarded by the Tribunal as full quit (without interest) as compensation, after deducting the amount already deposited if any, within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this award. If the payment has not been made within the time stipulated, the 2nd respondent is directed to pay the amount along with the interest at the rate of 7.5% p.a., till the date of realisation. In all other aspects, the order of the lower Court is sustained.

5. On such deposit, the Appellant/Claimant is permitted to withdraw
