When the matter is taken up for hearing today, it is submitted by both the learned counsel for the appellant as well as the learned counsel for the respondents 3 to 6 that the appellant and the respondent 3 to 6 have entered into an amicable settlement and also filed a compromise memo to that effect.

2. Recording the same, the Second Appeal is disposed of and decreed in terms of the compromise entered between the parties. This Court had examined the parties who have appeared in person and their respective counsels identified the parties to ensure that they are the appellant and contesting respondents 3 to 6. The 1st respondent is no more and her legal heirs are impleaded as respondents 3 to 6 and the 2nd respondent has sold the property in the name of the appellant. Therefore, the consent of the 2nd respondent does not arise for settlement between the parties. The memo of compromise shall form part of the decree. No costs.
