3. Though very many grounds have been raised by the petitioners against the order impugned, however, when the matter is taken up for hearing today, the learned counsel appearing for the petitioners submitted that the petitioners would contest the case and this Court, without going into the merits of the case may dispense with the appearance of the petitioners before the trial court.

4. Though such a prayer has been sought for, however, it is to be pointed out that the presence of the petitioners cannot be dispensed with in toto. In such view of the matter, this Court, without going into the merits of the case, directs that the appearance of the petitioners before the trial court is dispensed with except for their appearance for the purpose of receiving copies u/s.207 and questioning under Section 313 Cr.P.C. and on the day on which judgment is to be pronounced. However, if for any particular reason, the presence of the petitioners is necessary, the trial court, at its wisdom, shall direct their appearance on those days.
