COMMON ORDER

When these matters are taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for the 1st respondent made an endorsement stating that the 1st respondent/Decree Holder had taken over the possession of the suit property except property in S.No.40/4 and consequently, execution petition was terminated.

2. In view of the termination of main execution petition, nothing survives for further consideration in these civil revision petitions. Therefore, the Civil Revision Petitions are dismissed as infructuous. No costs. Consequently, the connected civil miscellaneous petition is closed.
