The Petitioner/Accused in Crime No.67 of 2024 registered by the respondent police for the offences under Sections 294(b), 324 of IPC r/w Section 4 of TN Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal Side) stated that the Petitioner and the defacto complainant are both neighbours and that there was a quarrel over taking of water, which escalated into violence. Hence, this case.

3. The learned counsel for the Petitioner stated that the Petitioner is an innocent person and had not committed any offence as alleged. He has been falsely implicated in this case. Thus, he prays for grant of anticipatory bail to the Petitioner herein.

4. Taking all the factors into consideration, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the Petitioner subject to the following conditions.

Crl.O.P.No.6421 of 2024

Accordingly, the Petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy made ready, before the Judicial Magistrate, Thiruvarur on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand only) with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police officer who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned, failing which, the petition for anticipatory bail shall stand dismissed and on further conditions that :

[a] the petitioner and the sureties shall affix their photographs and Left Thumb Impression in the surety bond and the Magistrate may obtain a copy of their Aadhar card or Bank pass Book to ensure their identity.

[b] the petitioner shall report before the respondent police daily at 10.30 a.m. for a period of two weeks and thereafter, as and when required for the interrogation.

[c] the petitioner shall not tamper with evidence or witness either during investigation or trial.
