ORDER

WEB COPY The petitioners are mother-in-law and sister-in-law of the deceased who committed suicide within 7 years of her marriage. Based on the RDO report, the prosecution has proceeded against these two petitioners for the alleged offence under Section 304 B IPC.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioners referring the statements of the witnesses submitted that these two petitioners, who were arrayed as A2 and A3, had never resided along with the deceased or A1. There was no demand of any dowry or consequential harassment. However, the RDO on the wrong premise had given a report that the deceased was subjected to dowry harassment and the prosecution has launched. The learned counsel also submitted that since there was no issues to the deceased, she has committed suicide out of frustration. However, the family members of the deceased had prevented those facts to prosecution and sentenced the petitioners.

3. This Court after perusing the Section 161 Cr.P.C., statement of the petitioners and the report of the RDO, unable to give a clean chit
