2. The case is still at the stage of trial. By passage of time, the parties have decided to bury their hatchet and compromise the dispute amicably among themselves.

3. The victim girl was present before this Court. She stated that her date of birth is 11.10.2002. She came along with her father who is the de facto complainant in this case. She stated that she married the petitioner on 11.2.2024. The petitioner and her father requested this Court to close the criminal case.

4. Compromise affidavit dated 28.3.2024 signed by both victim girl and the de facto complainant and their respective counsel has been filed before this Court. The petitioner and second respondent were also present in person before this Court. In the compromise affidavit, it has been stated that the petitioner, second respondent and the victim girl have entered into a compromise and amicably settled their issues in Spl.SC.No.107 of 2019, pending on the file of the Sessions Judge, Magalir Neethimandram, Fast Track Mahila Court, Villupuram District.

5. Under such circumstances, no useful purpose will be served in keeping the case pending, even though, the offences involved are not compoundable in nature. In the light of the guidelines given by the Hon'ble Supreme Court reported in (2017) 9 SCC 641-(Parbathbhai Aahir @ Parbathbhai Vs. State of Gujrath) and after exercising due caution as advised by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in The State of
