This Criminal Original Petition to quash the Final Report pursuant to the complaint given by one Kalaiselvi alleging that the petitioner had sexual intercourse with her on a false promise to marry her and thereafter, he refused to marry her and also assaulted her. It is also specifically alleged that the petitioner threatened her with dire consequence and taken away her jewels.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the defacto complainant Kalaiselvi is a blackmailer and given a similar complaint against two other persons and also extorted money. The narration of the facts alleging sexual intercourse is an inventory story for extorting money.

3. This Court, on perusing of Section 161 Statements of the witnesses which form part of the Final Report, finds that there is a sufficient material to try the petitioner for the offences under Sections 417, 392, 506(i), 376(2)(n) and 34 of IPC. The points of defence taken by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner in the quash petition
