The petitioner, who apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the alleged offence punishable under Sections 147, 148, 294(b), 323, 324 and 506(ii) of IPC in Crime No.182 of 2024, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the petitioner and the defacto complainant were residing in the same area. While so, on 17.03.2024 at about 8 p.m., there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant, for which the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with knife and wood bar and caused injury to him. Hence, the complaint.

3. Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner submitted that the petitioner is an innocent person and he has been falsely implicated in this case. He further submits that he has not committed any such offence as alleged by the prosecution and no way connected with the alleged offence. Hence, he prays to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

4. Learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) appearing for the respondent submitted that there was a wordy quarrel between the petitioner and the defacto complainant for which, the petitioner attacked the defacto complainant with knife and wood-bar and caused injury to him. He further submits that the injured has been discharged from the hospital. Hence, he vehemently opposed for the grant of anticipatory bail to the petitioner.

5. Taking into consideration the facts of the case and the submissions made by the learned counsels, this Court is inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions.

6. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen (15) days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order before the learned Judicial Magistrate No.I, Tiruvallur, on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.10,000/- (Rupees Ten Thousand Only) with two sureties, for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent police or the police
