the withdrawal of guideship has become infructuous. However, since the counsel for petitioner in the earlier hearing submitted that some of the pensionary benefits were not granted due to the inaction on the part of the fourth respondent in not forwarding necessary particulars, the petitioner is not able to get the benefits, the learned Government Advocate was directed to obtain necessary instructions in this regard.

3. Today, the learned Government Advocate produced a written communication of the fourth respondent dated 22.10.2024 and submitted that already the fourth respondent by proceedings dated 27.09.2024 had sent all the query raised by the Directorate of Collegiate Education and only insofar as the fifth query regarding the possession certificate of a property was not available and now the same was also received from the Joint Director, Directorate of Collegiate Education on 22.10.2024 and therefore, all the pending particulars in respect of the queries raised will be forwarded to the Authorities concerned as expeditiously as possible within a period of three weeks.
