The petitioner herein is before this Court to quash the complaint registered in Cr.No.14 of 2024 dated 02.03.2024 alleging that the incident which took place in the year 2004. The present complaint been filed as if they are fraudulently sold the property of the Coimbatore Press Club.

2. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.Side) states that the investigation in the complaint is at nascent stage. So far the allegations indicates that the petitioners herein as power agent of one Gowtham claiming himself as President of the Coimbatore Press Club had executed sale deeds in respect of two shops owned by the Club and it appears that the said Gowtham who had executed the sale deed was not the President at the relevant point of time.

3. Since the complaint has been registered a month ago and the investigation is at nascent stage, the Court cannot jump to any conclusion whether there is any element of criminality available or not in the complaint. The respondent police has to investigate and then arrive at conclusion whether to proceed against the petitioner herein or not.

Therefore, this Criminal Original petition is dismissed as prematured.
